THE WORST FEARS
AND BARRIERS
WITHIN MYSELF.

WHAT HAPPENS,
IF I CROSS THE LINE?

ABOUT ME

"What happens, if I cross the line?" This is the question where my artistic path begins. My aim is to do art following my intuition - not to be limited by my own beliefs or fears.

MY PATH

Painting has been my language since I was a child. However, life got on the way for over 15 years and it took a severe life crisis before I found art again. In the wave of losing my brother to suicide three years ago I started exploring my life values. I started painting again and found my long lost language.

Nowadays my day job is as a Communications Director, and the rest of my time I devote to art and my little boys.

MY ART

In my art could be depicted abstract art, focusing on colours and how they reflect emotions. I love painting abstract landscapes, places that are important to our path as humans. But I explore also the human figure and the various emotions that are a part of humanity and motherhood.

Lately I have been painting mostly COMMISSIONED ART WORKS. Read more about commission art, my exhibitions and my path at liinaonerva.fi/in-english.

I HOPE YOU ENJOY!
